

Rob Marek

Assistant Director

U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO)

Rob Marek is an Assistant Director at the independent and non-partisan U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO). His work focuses on science and technology policy. His past work has examined federally funded advanced energy research, federal lab technology transfer, competition in the energy industry, and the patent system.