

Peter Verhoef

Peter has been working as a patent examiner at the EPO since 2000 in the field of payment architectures, vending machines and gaming. He has been active in developing in-house trainings, coaching, and has been presenting the procedure of the EPO in the field of computer implemented inventions (CII) to external audiences.