

Seth Flagsberg
Assistant Clinical Professor
Santa Clara Law

Seth has worked in criminal defense for 3 decades. As a Santa Clara County public defender he represented defendants in many serious cases including numerous homicide prosecutions. Seth was also a staff attorney at the Northern California Innocence Project. He currently does criminal appeals for the 6th District Appellate Project & also teaches professional responsibility at Santa Clara University School of Law. Seth has presented frequently on forensic issues and has argued cases before the California Supreme Court and the 6th District Court of Appeal.