

Cassandra T. Swain, PhD
Assistant General Counsel
Microsoft

Cassandra T. Swain, PhD is an assistant general counsel at Microsoft. She leads a team of patent attorneys who support the Technology & Research Division. Her practice includes strategically developing and managing patent portfolios, supervising outside counsel to prepare and prosecute patent applications, and counseling and partnering with business units to develop and implement patent filing strategies. She also coordinates patent pro bono projects.