

Tiago Pinheiro

Tiago has been working as a patent examiner at the EPO since 2000 in the field of Computer Implemented Inventions (CII). He has been active in several projects with the European Patent Academy and has been presenting the procedure of the EPO in the field of computer implemented inventions (CII) to external audiences. He has been involved in the most recent redrafting of the Guidelines for Examination related to CII.