

Andrew P. Bridges
Partner, Fenwick & West LLP
San Francisco

Andrew Bridges litigates for and counsels technology and media clients in high-stakes disputes over new business models and technologies. His successes include RIAA v. Diamond Multimedia (protecting the introduction of the first MP3 player), Perfect 10 v. Visa and MasterCard (protecting payment systems for web sites), Perfect 10 v. Google/Amazon.com (protecting Google's search engine), and Huntsman v. Soderbergh (protecting ClearPlay's family-friendly DVD filtering software). He represented eBay, Facebook, IAC/InterActiveCorp, and Yahoo! as amici curiae in Viacom v. YouTube. Acting pro bono, he recovered thedajaz1.com domain for its owner after its seizure by Homeland Security, and he successfully represented Richard O'Dwyer in fighting extradition and prosecution for operating a UK-based linking site. @andrewbridges www.fenwick.com/andrewbridges
