

Tom Ewing
Principal Consultant
Avancept

Tom Ewing is a commercial lawyer and intellectual property counselor. IAM Magazine has thrice named Mr. Ewing as one of the world's 250 best intellectual property strategists. He has provided IP advice to government agencies, multinational corporations, and SMEs, and routinely lectures on IP at universities and professional associations worldwide. He has also trained patent agents from nearly 40 countries on behalf of the World Intellectual Property Organization. In addition to his law degree from UC Hastings, Mr. Ewing holds graduate degrees in literature, engineering, and industrial management & economics. He is a member of two state bar associations, and has been a registered patent agent/attorney since 1990.