

Dan Lang
VP Intellectual Property
Cisco Systems

Dan Lang is Vice President, Intellectual Property at Cisco Systems and leads a team responsible for Cisco's intellectual property strategy including portfolio development, licensing, standards IPR, patent pools, disputes, marketplace activity, and acquisition due diligence. Prior to joining Cisco in 2004, Dan was a partner at the patent boutique firm of Ritter, Lang and Kaplan and also previously practiced at Ritter, Van Pelt, and Yi and Townsend and Townsend and Crew. Dan has a JD from Boalt Hall School of Law, an MS from Stanford University, and a BS from Case Western Reserve University. Dan is a member of the California Bar and is also registered with the USPTO.