

Dr. Tashica W. Amirgholizadeh
Senior Counsel II, IP Litigation
Gilead Sciences, Inc.

Dr. Tashica W. Amirgholizadeh is currently Senior Counsel II, IP Litigation for Gilead Sciences, Inc. Her responsibilities include litigations and contested matters in the United States and foreign jurisdictions involving Gilead's Intellectual Property assets. Prior to joining Gilead, Dr. Amirgholizadeh was an associate in the Los Angeles office of Sidley Austin LLP. Her practice at the firm primarily focused on patent litigation(s) involving a wide variety of technologies, including biotechnology, medical devices, computer processor architecture, and plasma display panels. Dr. Amirgholizadeh received her undergraduate degree in chemistry, with a minor in mathematics, from Baylor University. Dr. Amirgholizadeh received her Ph.D. in chemistry from the California Institute of Technology (Caltech) and her J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley (Boalt Hall) School of Law.