

Dorian Daley
Executive Vice President and General Counsel
Oracle Corporation

Dorian Daley serves as Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Oracle Corporation. She began her career at Oracle in 1992 after spending five years with the commercial litigation group of Landels, Ripley & Diamond in San Francisco. She is a 1986 graduate of Santa Clara University School of Law and a 1981 graduate of Stanford University. Prior to her appointment as General Counsel, Dorian served as Vice President and Associate General Counsel, Legal, with management responsibility for the Oracle Litigation group.

Dorian has been the recipient of various awards and recognitions, including the 2010 Diversity Gala Award from Santa Clara University School of Law for being a role model for women and minorities in the legal field, and the 2011 Best General Counsel Award (Large Public Company) by the Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal and San Francisco Business Times. In 2011, 2012, and 2013, Ethisphere Institute recognized Dorian as one of the Attorneys Who Matter in the Top General Counsel category; in 2012 the San Francisco Business Times named her as one of the Bay Area's Most Influential Women; in 2012 Corporate Counsel Magazine identified her as one of the Top Legal Officers; and in 2013 she was the recipient of the Santa Clara Law Alumni Special Achievement Award, Honoring Lawyers Who Lead.

Dorian serves on the Board of Governors for the Commonwealth Club of California, and the Executive Committee of BSA | The Software Alliance, which is the leading advocate for the software industry before governments and the international marketplace. In 2017, Dorian joined the Board for ChIPs (Chiefs for Intellectual Property), a nonprofit organization focused on advancing women in technology, law, and policy. Her appointment marks the first time a board seat will be held by a non-founding member. She has served as a member of the executive committee for the Securities Regulation Institute Board of Directors and is a member of the Santa Clara University Law School Advisory Board. At Santa Clara she also has served on the Diversity Gala organizing committee, the High Tech Law Institute Advisory Board and has participated in each session of the In-House Counsel Institute.
