

THE GRAPEVINE

Week 14 – November 15, 2021

November

Welcome

The Grapevine is your weekly newsletter published by the SBA for law students. The Grapevine features a weekly calendar of events as well as news from the SBA, and announcements from various on campus clubs.

Submissions

The Grapevine is produced by your SBA Secretaries, Carly Andrus and Joyce Yao. Submissions must be in PDF format and e-mailed to the sbagrapevine@scu.edu by Friday at 5:00 PM to be included in the following week's newsletter. We now require that you send us an email every time you would like to advertise an event. We will no longer accept one email for multiple weeks of inclusion in the newsletter.

U.S. and International Headlines:

- Democrats Try to Heal Rifts, Pass \$2 Trillion Spending Bill: Party leaders, centrists, progressives need to stay mostly united to approve big piece of Biden agenda this week
- Inflation Surge Whips Up Market Froth: Low inflation-adjusted returns on government bonds is driving investors to riskier corners of the market
- 'Ghost Guns': Firearm Kits Bought Online Fuel Epidemic of Violence: They are untraceable, assembled from parts and can be ordered by gang members, felons and even children. They are increasingly the lethal weapon of easy access around the U.S., but especially California.
- Judge Rejects Trump's Bid to Keep Papers Secret in Jan. 6 Inquiry: But a Trump lawyer has signaled an intent to appeal the ruling, which raises novel issues about an ex-president's executive privilege powers.
- Can Self-Defense Laws Stand Up to a Country Awash in Guns?: The Kyle Rittenhouse and Ahmaud Arbery cases raise intriguing legal questions about people who take the law into their own hands and then claim self-defense when someone dies.

IP headlines this week:

- Other Barks & Bites for Friday, November 12: NIH to File Suit Challenging Moderna's Patent Ownership, EU General Court Affirms Massive Google Fine, and US Government Warns Tech Companies About IP Risks in EU's Digital Markets Act: Updates in intellectual property law for the week!
 - CAFC Vacates TTAB Finding of No Fraud on the USPTO, Citing Two Legal Errors: An applicant's assertion that it has attained the status of recognition as the source of goods carrying a given mark is not undermined only by uses made by another person that has attained that status for itself.
 - WIPO Report Shows Economic Resilience During Pandemic, Buoyed by Massive Numbers of Chinese Patent, Trademark Filings: China received the most trademark application filings during 2020, at 9.35 million, an increase of 19.3% over 2019's totals.... Much of the global increase in 2020's patent filings was spurred by China, which received nearly 1.5 million patent applications last year, an increase of 6.9% over 2019's filing totals.
 - Cloudflare Tests Limits of Contributory Copyright Infringement: There is no Ninth Circuit loophole that allows service providers to knowingly host and distribute infringing content without incurring contributory liability.
 - Judge Upholds UK Power to Set FRAND Terms: This decision, which may now be appealed, confirms the UK as a forum for resolving FRAND disputes, it is likely to be welcomed by SEP owners but will increase concerns among implementers about the long arm of the UK courts.
 - Massie Introduces Bill to Repeal PTAB, Abrogate Alice: Representative Thomas Massie (R-KY) on November 5 introduced a bill, titled the Restoring America's Leadership in Innovation Act of 2021 (RALIA), HR 5874, that would repeal the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB), return the patent system to a "first-to-invent" model, rather than first-to-file, and would end automatic publication of patents.

Opportunities in Privacy with
EY Cybersecurity Consulting

EY

Building a better
working world

■ ■ ■ ■ ■
The better the question. The better the answer.
The better the world works.

You start right here ... with an opportunity in Privacy within EY Cybersecurity Consulting.

With rapidly changing global privacy laws and regulations, clients from all industries look to us for trusted solutions for increasingly complex risks. As a member of our Cybersecurity - Privacy team you'll help clients gain insights into their privacy programs and capabilities to maintain compliance with global privacy laws and regulations. You'll have access to our robust, global solutions and methodologies to advise clients on managing their privacy programs to mitigate their business risks. You'll belong to an internationally connected team of specialists, helping clients with their most complex cybersecurity and privacy needs and contributing toward their business resilience.

The Privacy team sits within the Cybersecurity practice. As part of this national practice, you'll work to assess privacy programs and strategies using our proprietary framework, design solutions to remediate gaps or enhance the maturity of specific privacy capabilities, improve measurements and monitoring, and develop sustainable processes to enable our clients to achieve business goals and mitigate their risks. You'll gain experience applying foundational privacy and risk management principles in complex environments and leveraging cybersecurity and privacy frameworks and standards.

When you join the Privacy team within EY Cybersecurity Consulting, you'll do more than offer insights. Your agility and curiosity will help clients navigate uncertain times by welcoming change and rallying others to seek the answers they need for today and the future.

Privacy JD/LLM application process

Join the practice for an information session on November 18th from 3:00pm - 4:00pm Eastern to learn more about how you can leverage your law degree and privacy knowledge to build a career in Consulting at EY.

Advance registration is required: register here
The session will not be recorded.

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. In light of the holiday season, candidate review will be suspended from December 10, 2021 and will resume on January 3, 2022.

Candidates selected to advance from application stage will receive a take-home writing sample activity.

Candidates advancing after the writing sample will be invited to two behavioral interviews with professionals from our Privacy practice. These interviews are considered “final interviews” and have the intent of gaining insights to candidates’ knowledge, experiences, and interest in Privacy Consulting. Candidate status updates are provided within two weeks of each step, with the exception of the noted suspended operations period.

Questions? Please reach out to Abby Motson, EY Recruiter at Abby.Motson@ey.com
