

THE GRAPEVINE

Week 8 – October 04, 2021

October

Welcome

The Grapevine is your weekly newsletter published by the SBA for law students. The Grapevine features a weekly calendar of events as well as news from the SBA, and announcements from various on campus clubs.

Submissions

The Grapevine is produced by your SBA Secretaries, Carly Andrus and Joyce Yao. Submissions must be in PDF format and e-mailed to the sbagrapevine@scu.edu by Friday at 5:00 PM to be included in the following week's newsletter. We now require that you send us an email every time you would like to advertise an event. We will no longer accept one email for multiple weeks of inclusion in the newsletter.

THE GRAPEVINE

Week 8 – October 04, 2021

October

Special Announcements:

Week eight! It's peak midterms, a truly spooky season!

Reminders:

- It's fall break y'all! No class from Saturday Oct, 09- Tuesday Oct, 12!
- Monday Oct, 04 is the last day to petition for a 2020 or 2021 degree!
- Friday Oct, 08 is the last day to request an administrative exam reschedule!
- The Center for Social Justice is looking for Volunteers. Please see the attached flyer!
- Please remember that masks are REQUIRED indoors at all times (except if you are eating and drinking). Please see the updated FAQs.
- If you are interested in free mental health counseling services for students, please check out the CAPS website here.

Pets of Charney Hall:

This week's good boy is Fernando (named after the ABBA song, specifically Cher's version.) He is the 2.5 year old pekallier (pekingese and cavalier king charles spaniel mix) rescue child of Jakob Speert, whom he frequently accompanies to the market, mall, and airport!

Please submit photos of pets to be featured in the GV to: SBA Grapevine@scu.edu

U.S. and International Headlines:

- Back on the Bench, the Supreme Court Faces a Blockbuster Term: The court, which is dominated by six Republican appointees, will confront a charged docket, including a case asking it to overrule Roe v. Wade.
- In Alaska's Covid Crisis, Doctors Must Decide Who Lives and Who Dies: Amid the nation's worst Covid-19 outbreak, patients are trapped in remote communities and doctors are prioritizing treatment based on who is most likely to survive.
- The Facebook Whistleblower, Frances Haugen, Says She Wants to Fix the Company, Not Harm It: The former Facebook employee says her goal is to help prompt change at the social-media giant
- Mortgage Payments Are Getting More and More Unaffordable: Record growth in home prices is erasing savings typically delivered by low interest rates
- Skateboards, Climate Change and Freedom: Germany's Next-Generation Parliament: A new generation of lawmakers is entering Germany's Parliament. They felt ignored by the previous government, so they set out to change that by winning elections.

IP headlines this week:

- Other Barks & Bites for Friday, October 1: CAFC Grants Mandamus to Apple; Second Circuit Affirms Independent Contractor Ruling in Friday the 13th Case; Unitary Patent Court to Begin Hearing EU Patent Cases in Mid-2022: Updates in intellectual property law for the week!
 - Federal Circuit Slams USPTO for Granting Ex Parte Reexam to Serial IPR Filer: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (CAFC) ruled today in a precedential opinion that Alarm.com, which was denied institution on three inter partes review (IPR) petitions it filed against patents owned by Vivint, Inc., could not simply "repackage" arguments raised in its IPR petition to challenge the same patent via ex parte reexamination.
 - CAFC Clarifies Willful Infringement Standard, Reinstating Jury Verdict and Enhanced Damages for SRI International: To eliminate the confusion created by our reference to the language 'wanton, malicious, and bad-faith' in Halo, we clarify that it was not our intent to create a heightened requirement for willful infringement.
 - Third Circuit: Facebook Not Immune to Right of Publicity Claims Under IP Carve-Out of Section 230: Because trademark and the right to publicity are analogues, the legal definition including trademark also supports including the right of publicity as 'intellectual property'.

Week 8 at SCU

Welcome to Week 8! We've got news for you and table tips too!

Table Tips - this week your Lexis Student Reps will be tabling on the 1st floor from 12-1pm Monday-Thursday! Stop by and grab some treats, highlighters, a water bottle (if you're a 2L or 3L) and register for your Thrive Crate (if you're a 1L).

They'll be showing you how to cite a case with confidence by using Shepard's to validate your research. It has been trusted by legal professionals for almost 150 years – longer than any other citator. This tip will show you how and why to Shepardize all authority you plan to use in your research to make sure you're relying on good law. Complete the Shepard's and Citing Good Law quiz or stop by to learn how and earn 100 points!

Virtual Tip - Complete the quiz about Shepard's and Citing Good Law by Friday 10/8 to earn your 100 points online if you're not able to stop by the tables. Same quiz, same points!

Office Hours - Your Lexis Student Reps are available via email to answer any class or research questions you have (or to set up a time to meet in person)! They've been where you are now and are eager to help, so email them and ask away!
