

Lisa Glover-Gardin
Senior Director, Associate General Counsel
Global Head of Privacy Legal
PayPal Inc.

Lisa heads the Global Privacy Legal team, responsible for ensuring compliance with privacy laws and standards for the company's products and services are available in more than 200 countries/regions and 25 currencies. Privacy Legal works at all levels of the business from strategic planning, product development, commercial transactions, compliance and tooling, regulatory engagement, to employment matters. Prior to joining PayPal, Lisa was Managing Senior Counsel at Google LLC for nearly 8 years where she managed and matured the Third Party Data Protection/Privacy Compliance team and a portfolio that included consent decrees with federal regulators.

Lisa has a strong interest in international practices and comparative notions of privacy based on cultural and geopolitical norms. Lisa has lived in Denmark, the US Virgin Islands, Jamaica, and Spain and is licensed in California, England and Wales.

Lisa is active in the community and has served in a leadership capacity on boards, including The Girl Scouts of Northern California, Hayward Unified School District, Hayward Area Recreation District Foundation, and was two term Commissioner for the City of Hayward. Ms. Glover-Gardin earned a J.D. from Santa Clara University Law School, with BA and MBA from San Francisco State University. Ms. Glover-Gardin is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) and faculty member at Practising Law Institute (PLI).