

The Seventh Annual Trina Grillo
Public Interest and Social Justice Law Retreat
March 12-13, 2005

Clarion Hotel San José
1355 North Fourth Street
San José, California 95112

The Trina Grillo Law Retreat provides a unique opportunity for public interest and social justice-oriented law students, faculty, and practitioners to exchange viewpoints, explore career opportunities, and formulate strategies for social justice.

The retreat honors the memory of Trina Grillo and includes the Ralph Abascal Memorial Address, delivered this year by Professor Gerald López.

Hotel rooms are available for both Friday night, March 11, and for Saturday night, March 12. The special Grillo Retreat rate – available through February 25 – for a double room (king bed) at the Clarion Hotel is $64 (plus tax). A larger room at a rate of $74 (plus tax) also is available. To make hotel reservations, please call the Clarion Hotel directly at (408) 453-5340 and request the group rate for the Trina Grillo Law Retreat.

The $125 Retreat Registration Fee includes three meals on Saturday, March 12, and breakfast on Sunday, March 13. A sliding scale for retreat registration is available. Hotel accommodations are not included in this registration fee.

Equal Justice Works will co-sponsor a session on Saturday examining how to integrate public interest and social justice into the law school experience.

Retreat registration does NOT include or guarantee hotel space. Conference participants must make their own hotel arrangements.

If you have a disability and require a reasonable accommodation, please call or e-mail the Center for Social Justice and Public Service at (408) 551-1720 or (800) 735-2929 (TTY – California Relay) at least one week prior to the event.

SOCIAL JUSTICE
LAWYERING:
STILL REBELLIOUS?

“Everyone who enters the fight for social change must contend with the idea of the lawyer for the subordinated that reigns over the contemporary practice of trying to change the world. ... If you struggle to change the world, you decide in small ways every day whether (like most) to acquiesce in the idea’s reign, or whether ... to elaborate a different idea of practice.”

GERALD P. LÓPEZ, REBELLIOUS LAWYERING: ONE CHICANO’S VISION OF PROGRESSIVE LAW PRACTICE 23 (1992).
